- Complimentary coffee and pastries served Saturday and Sunday morning until 9:45 AM.
- A reasonably priced country breakfast is served Sunday morning at the nearby Masonic Temple.
- Some overnight parking available.

Applications:

Accompany your application with a currently dated check (payable to Monroe Congregational Church) and pictures including: your booth, your display, your art or craftwork. Photos will be returned after check-in.

Application deadline is March 31, 2010. There will be no refunds for withdrawal after May 1, 2010.

→ If you are a returning crafter and want your same space, send in a completed application (w/pictures) by February 28, 2010. ←

Applications received by March 31, 2010 will be answered by April 30, 2010.

Selection committee rules:

1. Crafters may only show and sell their handmade items.
2. Manufactured and commercial reproductions are not acceptable.
3. Crafts from commercial kits are not acceptable.
4. Only 2 (two) categories of craft per space will be allowed.

The festival committee reserves the right to request the removal of any work not officially accepted during the jury process, or does not otherwise meet the standards for the show.
