Call to Worship

Leader: God reaches out to bring people in:

*People: Spirit-wind blowing in a way we can't miss,
Spirit-flames revealing God's word to each and every one,
Spirit-gifts connecting with our reality to make something new.*

Leader: God empowers and expects us to join in reaching out:

*People: Giving gifts of communicating across barriers, giving gifts of proclaiming good news,
giving gifts of creating community out of chaos.*

All: The Spirit of God is here, calling us in and sending us out! Thanks be to God!

How Beautiful, Our Spacious Skies

NCH #594

Call to Confession – Unison Prayer - Silent Prayer

You call us to remember who we are, O God, and to live as the people you created us to be. You send your Spirit to fill us with your breath, to lead and guide us into our place in your family, that all creation may revel in your glory. We admit that we fall into the trap of believing the worst moment is the end, forgetting that because you raised Jesus, the worst thing is never the last thing. Forgive us, loving God. Conform us ever more to your image, that we may live from the truth of your love. Amen. ~silence~

Words of Assurance

Passing of the Peace

In order for those tuning in from home to feel included, please turn and greet the webcam as you share signs of peace with one another.

Pastoral Prayer – Silent Prayer -- Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Music Notes

This morning's offertory anthem, "Lord of All Beauty" is a choral arrangement of a beautiful song composed by Clara Schumann in 1841, when she was 22 years old. For many years I have wanted to have our choir sing this in church. However, there were two problems which prevented this: 1) the song was originally composed for one singer and piano accompaniment, not four-part chorus, and 2) the original text was a love poem by the German poet Friederich Ruckert (titled "If You Love for Beauty") and not a "sacred" piece of church music.

Last year I was very happy to discover a new choral arrangement of "If You Love for Beauty", and got hold of it immediately for our choir to work on. The only remaining obstacle was altering the text to make the piece appropriate and meaningful for our worship services. In a rare moment of wisdom and ingenuity I contacted my friend Rob Stuart, a poet and retired Presbyterian minister, and asked Rob to compose suitable lyrics for "If You Love for Beauty". Within a few days, Rob supplied a new text, explaining:
I have written the song as a love song between the believing/doubting person and God, Lord of all beauty. It is a meditation with interior dialogue, or conversation between the person and God. With the repetition of the theme I have a repetition of questions in the dialogue. Then the burst of declaration of love from God and the believer's affirmation in response, to conclude.

I am very grateful to Rob for his poetic text, and grateful to Clara Schumann for this beautiful music. I am also grateful to YOU for reading this, which probably takes longer to read than listening to the actual music itself.

Outreach

It's been a while since you've seen the Heifer International collection bottle on the coffee table. We'll have it back out this month where we'll receive your spare change to help Heifer International's mission to end hunger and poverty in a sustainable way by supporting and investing alongside farmers and their communities. Your donation provides livestock, plantings and seeds to those individuals far away who in turn share with others so that they too can live better lives. Please contact Susie Cuseo at 203-268-0280 or thecuseos@yahoo.com with any questions or comments. Let your spare change change those in need of improvement in their lives.

A request from our Covenant to Care social workers. Please consider donating what you can.

Children/youth and teens in our community come into foster care sometimes with little to no belongings with them. To help aid in this transition and try to provide a sense of belonging, I am hoping to have donations of a few essential items such as hygiene items, diapers, wipes and toothbrushes to provide a family or teen to get through the first night/few days of placement in a new and unfamiliar home. We are seeking donations of any new, full-sized hygiene items.

Top 3 Hygiene items requested: deodorant, body wash (for either gender) and shampoo/conditioner. Other hygiene items: toothbrush, toothpaste, hairbrush, baby wash/shampoo, hair care products, skin care products, shaving cream, razors and feminine products.

Our families could also use new/unopened diapers/pull-ups any size (Newborn to size 6) and wipes. Thank you so much for this wonderful opportunity to continue partnering with Monroe Congregational Church! Our families are so thankful for the assistance and together, we are having a direct impact on children and youth within our communities experiencing foster care.

Thank you and Be well, Samantha Connecticut Alliance of Foster & Adoptive Families
