Don't Miss the Chrismon Display! A few months ago, my friend and MCC's Boy Scout Troop 63 scoutmaster Ed Gratrix, approached me with a proposal. "How would you like to have a display of my family's Chrismons this Advent?" I'll admit, I jumped at the chance. Saturday night he and his father will be decorating a tree in Wilton Hall for us to enjoy this Sunday, December 17th, at our 9:30 am special Christmas Coffee Hour!

Here's what he has taught me about his family's special tradition, which has been passed down to him from childhood days. Chrismons were created in 1957 by Frances Kipps Spencer at Ascension Lutheran Church in Danville, Virginia. The story is that she approached her pastor asking what can be done about the commercialization of Christmas (sound familiar?). The pastor turned to her and said more or less 'why don't you try and do something about it?' (wise pastor!). She made a few simple ornaments and named her creations Chrismons, meaning 'Christ Monograms'. Each one depicts symbols of Christianity and the church through the ages.

There are very simple rules on a Chrismon's (which Ed was taught and he verified later on the internet)

- Chrismons must be hand made of white and gold (colors representing purity and majesty)
- Chrismons should never be purchased or sold but can (and should) be gifted.
- Chrismons are placed on an evergreen tree with only White lights (both have their own meanings as well)

Ed's family owns about 100 or so of the several hundred that were made from the late 50's and early 60's by his grandmother, Augusta (Gussy) Hahn of Daniel's Farm Rd, Trumbull. At Christmas time he remembers that his grandmother's house would have two huge live trees, one full with Chrismons and one with the classic tinsel and zillions of colored lights. His grandfather took care of the contemporary tree and other festive spirits while his grandmother's pride and joy was the Chrismon tree. The tree was surrounded by a short white fence with a tiny gate that was functional but always left in the open position.

All guests to her home were offered a Chrismon, often right from the tree. She gave away dozens at each house that she and my grandfather visited around the holidays. If you were simply there at the house she visited, you received one. When people carry 'spare' gifts to make sure everyone receives something, she carried Chrismons. His mother's side of the family were connected to the firehouse and even today when he visits houses of other firefighting families, he sees Chrismons from two generations passed down.

This Sunday will be the first time in perhaps 30 years that this much of the collection is displayed together on one tree. How fortunate are we? How many symbols do you think you will be able to find? Thanks, Ed, for making our special celebration that much more festive.

In peace, Pastor Jenn

Waiting – The “Thorn” of Advent

Lately I've been in a place of waiting; waiting for my husband Wayne to have a complete recovery and return to work, waiting for my daughter to call or stop by from college, waiting to see what doors open from the ones recently closed. I recently was blessed to read an article about Paul's "thorn" (see II Corinthians 12:1-10). Instead of speculating about the nature of his "thorn", the author focused on the purpose of it, which was to make Paul see that the power in his ministry came from God, not him. That hit home with me. I've now taken all the waiting in my situations as welcomed "thorns" to help me understand that these are not my situations, they are God's and when that day comes to celebrate graduations and new paths before me, all glory and praise will be God's.

Now in early December we are waiting for Christmas. While the secular world has been shouting, "It's Christmas!" since Thanksgiving (or even before), the church leads us through Advent. I'm thinking that Advent is a welcomed "thorn" to remind us that the power of Christmas is not our own. The power of Christmas is certainly not found in the shopping malls or the hustle and bustle of seasonal activities. Without proper reflection and preparation, Christmas loses its real power. It simply becomes an event where on the 26th we sigh with relief and say, "Well, that's over for another year!"

Actually, Christmas marks a beginning, not an end. Advent, if practiced with care and reflection, helps us to see that Christmas is not something we need to get too quickly and then move on as before. It is God's act of coming into our world and becoming Immanuel, "God with us." Not with us for Christmas Day only, but for every day! God needs our attention, so through the "thorn" of Advent, God calls to us, saying, in effect, "Do you see what I'm doing?" Advent tries to cut through all the party planning, pageant practice, gift buying, gift wrapping, baking this and baking that. The church uses Advent to slow us down and allow God's love for us to be revealed with wonder, power and mystery.

The true joy of Christmas comes in having taken time to prepare for it, to consider the fullness of God's plan which begins with the birth of the Savior Jesus. Give Advent its due: wait, prepare, reflect, be wonder-filled and dare to be changed, for God, indeed, is with us!

May the joy of Jesus' presence fill your heart this Advent and Christmas!

Yours in Christ, Debi Mastroni-Kenyon

Help bring peace and cheer this holiday to kids and parents served by Empowering

Children and Families. ECF is a mission supported by MCC's Board of Outreach. Every day in CT, children and families fall through the cracks. ECF is comprised of a caring group of individuals who have experienced all too well the devastation to CT families due to a lack of appropriate services...and have decided it's time to make a change. We, as a society, can help to fill in the cracks by extending a helping hand out of love, trust, and mutual respect. ECF is asking for gift cards $25 or $50 to help provide a little extra joy this holiday season. There is a poster in Wilton Hall with tags. Contact Leanne McEvoy or Kathy Maiolo with questions.

Heifer International With your spare change, we can help families support themselves and others through the purchases of livestock and plants that will go to bettering their present situation and then providing for a future that allows them to work on their own. Money will be collected during coffee hour and can be placed in collection jar on the coffee table. By the end of December, Morning Circle will pool the change and send out a check. This is a great way to start off the holiday with a donation to something special with the help of everyone from the congregation. Please contact Susie Cuseo with any questions at 203-268-0280 or at thecuseos@yahoo.com
