Offering emotional support and spiritual care by helping people connect with their own inner and community resources.

Pastoral Care Team Update

Many of the members and friends of MCC serve each another in quiet yet important ways; providing meals if a loved one has been hospitalized, sending cards when someone is ill, or offering rides when asked. We are a caring community.

Pastoral care is the faithful ministry of a religious community to the needs of people in face-to-face relationships. A pastoral care giver builds an intentional, long-term relationship with someone who is ill or hospitalized, or who lives in a nursing home and can't get to worship or church activities. They listen and offer prayer and presence to a person or family going through a difficult time.

By vocation, training, and call, ordained clergy are often a church's main resource for pastoral caregiving. In many congregations, trained lay people become vital partners who extend the reach of that care within a church body. A Pastoral Care Team works with the clergy to assure that spiritual needs are met for those enduring long-term periods of illness.

To be an effective pastoral care giver one must learn some sensitive topics, including but not limited to: deep listening, confidentiality, identifying emergency situations, skill-building, life cycles, bereavement / grief / death and dying, hospital and nursing home visits, when to make referrals to clergy, record keeping, maintaining healthy boundaries and limit-setting.

The model we will follow is a team approach, like Stephens Ministries. Each Pastoral Care Giver will be trained and given one person or family to serve at a time. They will commit to visiting once a month with their person or family. In addition, they gather with other members of the pastoral care team for continuing education and regular check-in's. For the Pastoral Care Giver, learning more can be a time of enrichment and spiritual deepening.

I put out an invitation to our members and friends to join a newly-forming Pastoral Care team a few Steeples back, and some of you have expressed an interest. This September we will meet and begin training. It's not too late to join us, so please do speak with me this summer if you are interested. In peace, Pastor Jenn

Outreach

CROP Hunger Walk: Thank you to everyone who donated and participated in the 2016 CROP Hunger Walk. We raised $1,952.00 to support the overall ministry of Church World Service, especially grassroots, hunger-fighting development efforts around the world.

Dress A Girl Around The World Sew-A-Thon Returns July 16th from 10am-3pm~ Join Liz Skarzyinski from Dress A Girl Around The World on July 16th in Wilton Hall to create dresses for little girls overseas. There has been a request from India for dresses for girls there. Our goal will be to make 50 T-shirt dresses, a different style than the sun-dresses but in some ways is a little easier to make. Thank you for your generous donations of fabric. If you would like to contribute we need small toys that can fit in a 2-3 inch square pocket. Dress A Girl is part of Hope for Women International a non-profit, nondenominational independent Christian organization. If you would like to help or join the team, please call Liz 203-257-7174 or email Liz1202us@yahoo.com.

Sponsor a Month of Coffee Hours Would you like to help the people who come to worship get to know each other? What if we told you that sponsoring a month of coffee hours at the low, low price of $40 could feed four children for 3 weeks? You will not only get that warm and fuzzy feeling of doing something generous, but you can use your sponsorship to honor loved ones – a dedication goes on a plaque and in the bulletin. Please make checks payable to MCC with "coffee sponsor" in the memo field. Thank you

Christian Education

All Church Movie Night: Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone - 7pm, July 20th on the Parsonage Side Lawn Join us on Wednesday, July 20th at 7pm on the Parsonage side lawn for an all-church family viewing of the first installment in the Harry Potter Movies series! We believe that the entire Harry Potter series exemplifies important topics, including the power of self-sacrifice, the triumph of good over evil, and the ways in which people's decisions shape our personalities. This event is to celebrate and get excited for MCC's Vacation Bible School: Summer Camp at Hogwarts, which runs August 1-5, but you don't have to be a kid or have a kid to attend! Everyone is welcome to this free event – bring friends! Costumes are optional. Please bring a lawn chair or blanket and picnic snacks and beverages for you and yours. Please see Pastor Jenn if you have any questions.

Summer Camp at Hogwarts: Vacation Bible School, Aug 1- 5, 2016

Have you ever wanted to experience the wonder of Hogwarts, the deliciousness of Butterbeer, the excitement of magic classes? Our week in the wizarding world will provide all that with other fun activities like House Sorting, Quidditch, Potions Class, and more. If your child is a Harry Potter fan, our VBS will be an incredible chance to indulge his/her love for one of the most iconic series of this generation (and learn a bit more about our faith as we do!) Registration forms are online at mcc-ucc.org/ministries/vacation-bible-school.html and in the church office. Volunteers also needed, please contact VBS co-chairs Lani Siciliano lanimsis@yahoo.com or Liska Gutierrez at liskag7@gmail.com for more information.

May We Borrow?

The parents, professors and administrators at Hogwarts are in need of some supplies. If we can use or borrow anything on this list, we would be ever so grateful. If you would like an item we borrow to be returned, please mark it with your name before turning it into the office:

- Black graduation gowns
- Brooms and tiki lamps (without lamp part) for Quidditch
- Any general Harry Potter decorations

Gratefully, Prof. Minerva McGonagall

All Church-Read Discussion: Why Did Jesus, Moses, the Buddha, and Mohammed Cross the Road? Christian Identity in a Multi-Faith World - 11:30 July 24 in Dineson Parlor When four religious leaders walk across the road, it's not the beginning of a joke. It's the start of one of the most important conversations in today's world. Can you be a committed Christian without having to condemn or convert people of other faiths? Is it possible to affirm other religious traditions without watering down your own? Blending history, narrative, and brilliant insight, McLaren shows readers step-by-step how to reclaim a strong-benevolent faith, challenging us to stop creating barriers in the name of God and learn how affirming other religions can strengthen our commitment to our own. And in doing so, he invites Christians to become more Christ-like than ever before. Join us in Dineson Parlor for more conversation on this important interfaith read on Sunday, July 24th at 11:30am. Please see Pastor Jenn if you have any questions.

Hi, I'm Debi Mastroni-Kenyon

And I am the Monroe Congregational Church's newly hired Director of Faith Formation and I will be joining you on July 5th! The first thing people usually want to know about a new staff member is their background and experience. I have a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Education at Defiance College in Defiance, Ohio. I earned an Associate of Science in Psychology at Gateway Community College in 2006. I also have 23 years of experience in Youth Ministry and 9 years of experience in Faith Formation for all ages.

Currently I am wrapping up the program year with the North Haven Congregational Church. Before that, I served the Woodmont United Church of Christ in Milford, alongside your friend Rev. Cynthia Robinson.

I have a true passion and love for Faith Formation and service which reaches across the generations. One of my colleagues likes to say that I have Faith Formation in my DNA. I also have a strong connection to my friends on the Cheyenne River Reservation, where I have volunteered with Simply Smiles over 5 work trips. I have also served the CT Conference UCC in a variety of settings.

My home is in Milford with my husband Wayne, and we have one adult daughter. In my spare time I like to cook, garden, spoil my cat (Holly), volunteer at the Simply Smiles office and sing with the New Haven Chorale.

The Hogwarts Sorting Hat Questionnaire The Sorting Hat, bless its frayed brim, is taking a quick rest. So in the interim, we think a placeholder is best. New Hogwarts students, worry not! We'll find a home for you. But instead of that charmed chapeau, this quiz will have to do.

1.) You are given a test at school that has questions that teacher hasn't covered yet. In the middle of the test you notice that your friend next to you has a cheat-sheet. The teacher doesn't notice.

- Ask to share the cheat-sheet. This test isn't fair, so why should you be?
- Good for them, they beat the system.
- Confront them after the test and try to convince them not to cheat anymore. You don't want them to get in trouble.
- Confront them after the test and force them to tell the teacher they cheated, or you will tell on them. They must pay for their misdeeds.
- Inform the teacher right in the middle of class that they are cheating. Cheaters never prosper!

2.) While walking down the street you see a wallet on the side of the road. It has a small amount of money in it, but no identification of any kind. There is nobody in sight.

- Leave it there. Someone is probably looking for it.
- Pocket the money. You don't know who it belongs to, so finder's keepers.
- Take it to the police in case anyone ever reports it.
- Take the wallet, and go around the area asking anyone if they have lost a wallet recently.

3.) Someone has played a prank on you which involves your public embarrassment and everyone begins laughing at you. However, you doubt they meant any harm by it.

- Laugh along with the crowd. You love a good joke even if it's at your expense.
- On the outside you'll laugh because you don't want anyone to know that they really hurt your feelings by making you look stupid in front of everybody.
- You get upset and run away from the crowd. How could they be so mean?
- Pretend that all is well, but you won't forget this. They're going to pay for what they did! How dare they publicly humiliate you.

6.) A kid accuses you, in front of a whole crowd people, of stealing his toy which you did not do. You are twice his size, but he won't back off.

- How dare he insult me in front of all these people? I'll show him how things work in the real world!
- Explain to him that I didn't take his toy and give him fair warning that he'll have a black eye if he doesn't drop it.
- Try to rationalize with the kid. Tell him you didn't take the toy and refuse to fight him even if he takes a few swings at you.
- Tell him you didn't take the toy and direct him to someone who can help him find it.
- Explain to him you didn't take the toy and offer to personally help find the person who did.
